PRESIDIO RESIDENTIAL CAPITAL HIRES VETERAN ACQUISITIONS AND AUDIT EXECUTIVE

SAN DIEGO – May 22, 2015 – Presidio Residential Capital has hired Linda G.H. Prosi, a veteran real estate executive with deep experience in acquisitions, due diligence and portfolio administration, to help with legal entity formation, loan review and tracking, audit compliance and transaction closings.

“We are fortunate to have Linda join our team,” said Presidio Residential Capital principal Don Faye. “She has a wealth of knowledge and experience and adds additional capacity to our operations.”

Prosi has experience in all aspects of land acquisitions and real estate loan administration with exceptional audit results. She has established and managed an acquisition services department for a national diversified real estate company; coordinated due diligence, approval and closing of more than 90 transactions totaling more than $1 billion, and supervised administration of a $700 million multi-state real estate loan portfolio.

Most recently, Prosi was a reasonable accommodation facilitator for Warren Properties, where she handled all matters pertaining to reasonable accommodations and fair housing law for the privately owned national property management firm. As vice president of acquisition services for Newland Real Estate Group, Prosi managed administration of a national land acquisitions portfolio, and as a controller for Design Line Interiors, she oversaw accounting, collections and human resources.

Prosi has also served as special projects manager for Cornerstone Communities, vice president of loan administration for Pacific First Bank (Gentra Capital) and was on the board of directors for HomeAid.

“I’m looking forward to being an active participant in Presidio’s future success,” Prosi said.
Prosi earned a bachelor’s degree in social sciences and history from San Diego State University.
